[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Appleton, Wis., Oct. 24.—There is no longer any doubt about the construction of the new interurban line between the east shore of Lake Winnebago from Fond du Lac to Appleton, via Kaukauna, John M. ## INDIAN STRANGELY KILLED NEAR ROAD

Indications Point to Lack of Motive to Have Murdered Man Unless It Was a Grudge.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Appleton, Wis., Oct. 24.—The body of John Daphtier, an Ojibwa Indian, was found yesterday alongside of the Freedom road a mile south of the road and there is a suspicion that foul play has been committed. Coroner Thomas E. Johnston and Sheriff Locking visited Freedom yesterday afternoon and a coroner's jury has been organized. Little details of the tragedy have been learned thus far and an adjournment of the coroner's inquest has been taken for several days to allow the authorities time to make a thorough investigation. ## CANADA SENDS ENVOY TO JAPANESE EMPIRE

Will Take Up Problem of Immigration With Japanese Government.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 24.—Among the passengers sailing on the steamship Empress of India for the Orient today is the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who has been appointed Canada's envoy to Japan to take up the immigration problem with the Japanese Government. By sending Mr. Lemieux to Japan and at the same time paying damages to the Japanese residents who suffered in the recent riots in this city it is believed that the differences between the two countries will be amicably settled.

In presenting the case of Canada to the Japanese Government Mr. Lemieux will make a strong point of the fact that in urging upon Parliament the act of last session, giving the force of Canadian law to the Anglo-Japanese treaty of 1894, the Prime Minister met objections to the clause of the treaty which provides for full right of entry and residence in Canada to Japanese, by assuring the house that the Government of Japan would still be bound to the agreement to restrict immigration to a certain number of Japanese subjects yearly.

ANOTHER LINK OF GREAT WATERWAY

Canal 75 Miles Long Between Illinois and Mississippi Rivers Opened.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Sterling, Ill., Oct. 24.—A distinct and important step in the movement to secure a deep waterway from Lake Michigan to the Gulf of Mexico was taken today with the opening to navigation of the Illinois and Mississippi canal, which has been completed after thirty years of work. The importance of the event was evidenced by the attendance of Governor Deneen, and many other notable at the opening ceremonies.

This work of constructing the canal, which was formerly known as the Hennepin canal, was commenced many years ago. In 1890 congress appropriated money to carry on the work and altogether the appropriations have amounted to about $8,000,000.

The main line of the canal, 75 miles long, extends from the Illinois river, near Hannibal, to the Mississippi river three miles below Rock Island. The navigable feeder, about 20 miles long, extends from Rock Island to this point to the main line near Sheffield and is of the same general dimensions as the main line. The canal is 52 feet wide at the bottom, 80 feet at the water line, and has a minimum depth of 7 feet. There are 32 locks on the main line and one on the feeder. Water is to be forced down the canal by a great dam, one-fourth of a mile long and located at this point. At one end of the dam are 21 sluiceways which will be used for electrical power development.

HEAR DISCUSSIONS ON TRUST IDEALS

Conference on Trusts and Combinations Still in Session in Chicago.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Chicago, Oct. 24.—The discussion of the trusts in their different phases was continued today by several speakers of national prominence. Among them Allen Ripley Foote.

Allen Ripley Foote said: "That competitive industrial corporations and public service corporations cannot be effectively regulated by the same methods under laws applicable to both was the conclusion drawn by Allen Ripley Foote, president of the National Tax association, in his address on 'Governmental Regulation of Competitive and Monopolistic Corporations.' As a remedy from the present conditions Mr. Foote suggested that the Sherman anti-trust law should be amended to exclude public service corporations from its operation and to permit reasonable trade agreements under the supervision of the Department of Commerce and Labor and that the interstate commerce law should be amended industrial competitive corporations from its operation, and so as to permit reasonable trade agreements in order to secure uniformity of rates, rules, and methods of operation, under the supervision of the Interstate Commerce commission.

"The Sherman anti-trust law and the interstate commerce law have been disappointments," proper lines of demarcation between corporations that are by nature organically opposed in character. By reason of this fact, there is a failure to recognize and properly apply in these laws the fundamental requirements of the natural law of competition and monopoly.

"A sane and safe plan of action is impossible unless it is based upon a sane and safe principle. All plans must be based primarily upon a recognition of the human element involved. Those who are affected by a regulation of trusts and combinations must be sought in a more intelligent recognition and application of the moral law which teaches honesty as a principle and of the economic law which requires the enforcement of honesty as a practice.

"The political and industrial supremacy of America cannot be destroyed except by an unwise exercise of political power by its people in ill-considered attempts to restrict the economic organization and development of their industries. No such fate awaits us. Discussions such as are promoted by this conference will bring a knowledge of the truth to the people. When the people are rightly informed, their political action will be right. Such action will add, instead of subtract, to the further organization of our industries on lines of greater economic efficiency until combinations reach the limit of economic production and management.

"The tendency to combination which permeates every form of human activity, political and industrial, gives evidence of an ever-increasing strength regardless of misinformed denunciation and antagonistic legislation, state and national. This tendency is the result of the out-working forces of a natural law against which obstructions, interposed by fear, are powerless. Until this natural law is recognized, correctly understood and applied in the solution of the problem under consideration, all efforts to correctly regulate and utilize its force will be made in vain. The problem of today is the correct education of the people so that they will understand the natural law that forces combination and industrial combinations, and understanding it, will know how they can most wisely utilize it in their attempts to make such combinations, whether small or great, their most helpful and obedient servants. The social, political and business customs and laws of the times and communities in which men live furnish the only standards by which the character of their conduct can be justly estimated.

"German and English standards for the regulation of corporations differ from those of political economists, are seeking to establish in this country. In the United States the attempt is being made to defy statutory law through efforts to brand men as malefactors, who have been guilty of no crime other than that of conforming to the customs of their time and place.

"In Germany combinations are fostered and encouraged by the government. In England the government does not interfere with them at all. An act which is a crime and makes a man an undesirable citizen in the United States makes a man a captain of industry and gives him honor on the other side of the ocean.

"Provisions of statutory law by which men are to be judged should be made to conform to the requirements of moral and economic law. They should not be changed in response to the requirements of party expediency or the political ambition of any man. Efforts to make laws just should not be less sincere and strenuous than efforts to enforce obedience to laws. The progress of civilization is due to the refusal to obey unjust laws. The

Here is a story that is being told on a nice young man who teaches a Sunday school class in North Baltimore. It has been told on other young men before, and there is a strong probability that it never happened at all to this particular young man, but his friends have attached the story to him, and, much to his discomfort, he must bear it. In the first place, he is very bashful, and the request made by the Sunday school superintendent that he take a class of young ladies, who had just lost their previous teacher, was disturbing enough. The previous teacher had been a charming woman, and her loss was due to marriage with a Washington man. The class of ten charming young ladies waited while the young man was being brought from the other side of the room, where he had been the presiding genius of

MYSTERY OF LOST WATCH AND COAT

Each Belonged to Different Man and Both Pillowed Head of Unknown Sleeper on Holmes Street.

Donna Barry of this city lost a valuable gold watch Monday night and John Jorgenson, a farmer from the vicinity of Stoughton, parted with a light overcoat of good quality. Both men are said to have been under the influence of liquor on the evening in question; both complained of their losses at the police station within an hour of one another the next day; each man was unaware of having ever seen the other party before in his life. But the overcoat, neatly folded up, with the missing watch in one of its pockets, served as a pillow for some unknown individual who slept on the terrace guard under a tree located on Holmes street about a block from the convent, and was delivered at the station some time after the men registering the complaints had departed. Jorgenson, who has been having a pretty good time in this locality, was placed under arrest while in an intoxicated condition last evening and paid a fine and costs of $5.00 in municipal court this morning. He identified the overcoat as his property but was apparently as mystified as the police as to how the watch got into the pocket. Beyond the fact that he was shoved out of a west side resort where drinks are dispensed at a late hour that night, he could recall nothing connected with the possible time when, and place where the garment turned up missing. He is a man of frank and

LAD IS THOUGHT TO HAVE STOLEN MONEY

Currency Amounting to $3,000 Stolen at Freeport Saturday Night—Still Missing.

After a three days' search for the registered mail package containing $3,000 sent by the First National bank of Monroe to the Bank of Argyle, last seen at Freeport, suspicion now rests on the head of a lad who had been working around the Illinois Central depot for the past four months and commonly went by the name of "The Kid." He relinquished his position at Freeport Monday after being arrested and thought to have gone to Milwaukee. The postal authorities are now searching for a lad in the Green City that answers to the suspect's description. While Jorgenson's watch is still under arrest still he is practically cleared of the alleged theft and stands almost vindicated of having anything to do with the disappearance of the currency last Saturday night.

WOMEN'S FEDERATION STILL IN SESSION

Harmony is the Keynote of the Entire Gathering—Delay Reports.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Oct. 21.—Harmony appears to be the keynote of the entire convention. Every detail of the work of the federation shows a studious attempt to gloss over any annoying features and make the meeting one to be remembered for its harmony. In this line the report of the committee on the revision of the by-laws which was scheduled to report this morning was delayed until tomorrow. This is taken as a diplomatic move by the officers to delay any open friction on the question of a recent assessment which it is known the Milwaukee College Endowment society is opposed to owing to its large membership. It is hoped this matter will be adjusted satisfactorily without any open rupture of the floor of the convention when it comes up tomorrow.

SEVEN APPEALS TO THE SUPREME COURT

From Decisions in Litigation Which Has Been Before the Circuit Court of Rock County—Four Cases Went up This Week.

Four cases recently tried in the circuit court of Rock county have been taken to the supreme court and the records will be sent to Madison on Monday next. One of the actions is that of John E. Kennedy vs. Michael J. and Donald Kennedy to set aside a deed given by the first-named defendant to his mother, and to attach his interest in the said property for an account which Nelson Bros. Heavy held against him and which the latter firm sold to the plaintiff Kennedy. The court held that there was a valid consideration and that the deed was not fraudulent as claimed by the plaintiff. Atty. Fred Burpee represented the defendants and Atty. E. H. Ryan the plaintiff.

George K. Tallman is entitled to about $80 damages from the C. M. & St. P. Ry. Co. according to the decision in the action which he brought to recover for the loss of a valise which he had stored in the freight house over night. The company claimed that it was not a common carrier but as a warehouse man and appeals from the court's findings on this ground. Atty. T. S. Nolan represents the defense.

William Lathers in a suit against the town of La Prairie for insurance company was awarded a verdict of $50 damages for the loss of a horse which had been sent to a neighbor eight miles away to be broken in, and had been there eight years when it was killed in a fire. This case was also appealed by Atty. T. S. Nolan.

Judge Grimm dissented from the action of the hotel, Delavan Lake & Janesville Interurban Ry. Co. vs. Ada R. Trimmison, John J. Edwards, W. H. H. Macdon and others, for want of jurisdiction, and this also has been taken to the highest tribunal.

There are now before the court four cases taken up from the Rock county circuit court. One of these is the action involving the right of certain individuals to draw a $5 per week stipend for their services to the city; another the action of J. H. Ryan vs. Michael J. and Donald Kennedy, and the fourth, the Warsaw vs. Rosengarten junk dealers' suit from Beloit.

THINK STUDENT IS DEAD IN THE LAKE

Find His Clothes on the Bank and Believe He Took His Life While Despondent.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 21.—Lake Mendota here is being dragged for the body of Casper Whitaker of Oshkosh, a student in the dairy school of the University of Wisconsin, who disappeared yesterday and whose clothes were found on the shore of the lake. It is believed he committed suicide. He was about 25 years old and came here a year ago to take a course in the scientific manufacture of butter and cheese, which he would complete this year.

He was of peculiar disposition, having few friends and making few acquaintances even among the other students who were associated with him in classes. Yesterday he failed to show up and a search was instituted. His clothing was found a mile from the university quarter, on the shore of Lake Mendota. The garments had been carefully laid aside and had apparently not been disturbed since removal, for they contained $15 in cash and other articles of value. Some people believe to the belief that the man went for a late bath in the lake and was accidentally drowned, but the evidence of the day discards this theory and it is generally believed that the fellow committed suicide.

Men's Suits at Popular Prices

We were met at every turn with the "higher price" arguments in our search for Men's and Boy's Clothing that would come up to The White House guarantee of quality.
Our search took months, and we are proud of the results. We are making a specialty this fall of MEN'S SUITS at $8.95, $10
and $12.50.

They're here to sell—every one of them—but we would rather you'd compare them with any you can find anywhere. We could with reason talk of big values, but we want you to know them as The White House
Special Suits and Overcoats at $8.95, $10 and $12.50. The kind of Suits and Overcoats that will bring you back again to get similar values when the time comes. As to styles of fabrics—you can't find them at any price more stylish.

The workmanship and finish in every detail are what you have a right to expect in Suits and Overcoats at perhaps, double the price.
All sizes here. Make your selection
this week.

3 Great Bargains in Outing Flannel

Such values make the Outing Flannels offered by merchants generally at the prices we make look like cheese cloth. Seeing is Believing.

No. 1—Half bleached Outing Flannel, 27 inches wide, at our price we practically give one 2 cents on every yard. 3000 yards at 5c.

No. 2—Half bleached Outing Flannel, 32 inches wide, equal to any and better than much now offered by other stores at 12 1/2c. 4000 yards at 10c.

No. 3—Half bleached heavy twilled Outing Flannel, 30 inches wide;— people pay 15c for this grade readily; this is wonderful value. 5000 yards at 12 1-2c.

These are not cut prices, not simply baits to get you into the store. But they will give you an idea of how well you can do here on domestics. Do not waste time running around.

Iowa Pedagogues in Session.
Sioux City, Ia., Oct. 24.—Many teachers are here for the annual meeting of the Northwest Iowa Teachers' association, which will be in session
during the remainder of the week. Almost every city and town of the territory embraced by the association is represented and from all indications it will be the largest and most successful meeting in the history of the organization. Prominent among those on the program for addresses are Governor Cummins, Judge H. E. Deemer of the state supreme court and Dr.
William A. Shandlin, president of Upper Iowa University.

Target Shoot At Jamestown.
Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—What promise to be one of the most successful clay target tournaments ever pulled off in this section of the country opened today at the Jamestown exposition and will continue through the remainder of the week. Prominent among the well-known marksmen who are entered in the various events are Fred Gilbert, Leo H. Barkley, W. H.
Crosby and J. Howell Hawkins.

Universalists at Philadelphia
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 24.—Nearly 2,000 ministers and laymen of the Universalist church are in Philadelphia to attend the biennial session of the general assembly of that denomination.
The formal opening took place today in the church of the Restoration and it will be the middle of next week before the proceedings come to an end.
The importance of the business before the convention has resulted in an unusually large and representative attendance. The ministers' meeting which has become a feature of the convention will occupy one day, the general theme being "Religious Education of the Individual through Juvenile organization, the Sunday school,
the press, the pulpit and church membership. One day has been set aside for the Women's Missionary Association, and the convention proper will last five days.
The chief themes for discussion and action at the convention will be "Superstition," which will be re-considered; "The Japan Mission," the policy of which may be changed, making it more educational; "The Death of Ministers," and the "Missionary Advance in the South and West."
